

#myspotinthedot

THIS WEEK: EAST

You have snapped photos of your favourite spot in our Little Red Dot and told us why you like it. Over the next two Mondays, we will feature some of the most creative entries for The Straits Times #myspotinthedot National Day contest. Today, we feature people's favourite spots in Singapore's east.
* We will announce the winners of the Aug 1 National Day Parade preview tickets next week.

hedonaystic
Changi Airport 1w

Of new beginnings and lasting memories. Feelings of home have never been stronger any place else.

mongsss

Who says there is no autumn in Singapore? Here is beauty all around us if you take the time to look.

eve_teo
Pulau Ubin 2w

Not just a city, buildings and man-made beach. We have spectacular sunsets, nature and kampong spirit. The little island that's ours, not forgotten.

beefoo29

Love taking it slow to enjoy the peace and tranquility at Changi Beach, watching the sunset and boats go by.

khir1
Bazaar Geylang 1w

It's the best time of the year to be at the hustle and bustle with the crowd at Geylang Serai. Hari Raya Adilfitri is around the corner.

bakesandtravel 9w

What didn't kill us made us stronger. For the years of blood, sweat and tears, taekwondo has been a sport that watched us grow in many ways. Remiscing the days we all had those countless injuries, long hours of training and competitions, VJ will always have a special place in our hearts.

prisgooner 2w

East Coast Park's iconic hawker centre never fails to bring back those good memories of my childhood days of cycling at the park with family and friends, then dropping by here for dinner. I feel so nostalgic.

alyunited
Changi Airport 3w

It is the location whereby I depart for my travels. But every single time when I step into the arrival halls, there is a sense of comfort as I know that nothing beats home. And we got one of the best passports in the world.

rafsiecakes 6d

@thetinmaneats and I use to have lots of spontaneous teh tarik dates here, catching up with each other and contemplating our future. Special place to us = perfect wedding photo op!

j0oce 2w

Because I'll always remember those long, comforting drives down Changi Coastal Road with nothing but the sound of airplanes taking off, the local radio playing and my companions from the hustle and bustle of work. Unparalleled skyline and seaview – all laid out right before me as I gawk and drive.

the_sleepy_creator 2w

My little heaven is located in the eastern part of Singapore where the wind is cool and the Changi trees will shade me from Mr Sun. Happiest and most peaceful place on earth.

bebizhou 2w

Life is great for those who are able to take time off to live. Changi Village has a place in my heart as it's where I spent most of my weekends with my parents during my childhood. It's a unique place in Singapore that has withstood the passage of time.

amesleowtzening 2w

My favourite spot is my grandmother's flat. It has a beautiful view of the sea and is always windy. It's also where my brother and I get to enjoy delicious Peranakan food cooked by Mama and share many good times with my cousins, uncles and aunts.

vincentlimhc
East Coast Park Beach 1d

I love this fishermen spot along ECP because it's surrounded by tall Christmas-like trees which make the spot cooling even on a sunny day. With a safari chair and cup of milo, it makes my rest day complete. Work life balance is possible in Singapore. Just find a good spot.

timmytay
Pasir Ris, Singapore 4w

Favourite #myspotinthedot is my home of 25 years: Pasir Ris. Much has changed in SG in the past 50 years, but the #reflections and sense of belonging and pride remain.