

May

16 A foreign lorry driver, 25, was killed in a collision between his vehicle, a tipper truck and a van in Woodlands Road near Yew Tee Industrial Estate.

19 A worker was patching up holes on a viaduct floor on the Tuas West Extension of the East-West MRT Line when a colleague drove a forklift into him.

23 Bangladeshi worker Riyade Hussain, 23, was killed at a rail depot off Mandai Road by a falling steel truss while he was unloading the trusses from a lorry.

24 A worker at Kee Seng Road was carrying out carpentry works on the roof level. He was climbing down a scaffold when he fell about 13 floors to his death.

June

5 • A worker was electrocuted by the high-pressure water jet machine he was using to clean an outdoor pavement.

• A worker, 78, was found unconscious at the lift lobby of a factory. He later died in hospital.

7 A worker was found dead inside a conveyor, the gear sprocket bearings of which he had been greasing.

9 A foreign worker, 43, died at a Kranji Link worksite after a stack of bored pile casings collapsed on him, pinning him against the tracks of a piling machine. The casings had been knocked over by an excavator's bucket. His 33-year-old colleague was arrested.

11 A worker, 26, was working on the roof of a loading bay in Benoi Road when he fell through a skylight.

14 A taxi driver was making payment at the cashier booth after refuelling his taxi, when his taxi moved forward, pinning him against the door.

16 A female worker, 33, was found caught in a palletiser machine in a Gul Circle factory.

20 A worker was unloading traffic cones from a lorry on an expressway when an oncoming tipper truck collided into a nearby truck, which moved forward and struck him.

31 A Malaysian worker, 30, was at the bottom of a shaft at a Marina South worksite when a lifting machine hoisted by an excavator fell out of its slings and struck him.

July

1 A worker died after falling from a 1.8m A-frame ladder while cleaning the glass panels of a shelf.

8 A motorcyclist collided into a stationary trailer in Shun Li Industrial Park and died four days later.

12 A river taxi caught fire along the Singapore River. Its steersman Ong Hock Long, who was in his 30s, jumped into the water. His body was recovered from the river the next day.

21 A condominium security officer was found unconscious on the ground near his guard post. He died in hospital the next day.

August

8 A construction worker building a stairwell in Tuas died after being hit by a chain that snapped and swung into him.

12 A prime mover, towing a trailer with an empty container, collided into a tree along Jalan Buroh. The driver died in hospital later that day.

14 A worker helping to unload cargo from a vessel docked at Jurong Port was killed after a bundle of steel bars that were being moved slammed into him.

15 A worker, 38, was found inside an industrial food mixer in a shophouse unit.

23 A worker, 39, was assembling the casing of an air conditioning unit when he fell off a ladder.

28 A worker, 33, from China, fell seven storeys to his death at Mega@Woodlands construction site.

Aug 28

September

3 A worker died after being struck by a falling metal pipe when it got dislodged from the hook of the crane lifting it.

7 A worker was crushed to death between his excavator and the hydraulic arm of another heavy vehicle.

October

4 Underwater World Singapore head diver Philip Chan (below), 62, was preparing animals for transfer to a new aquarium when he was stung in the chest by a stingray.

