

Skills rising in popularity

		What do professionals with these skills do?	Examples of occupations which require these skills
Compliance		Ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Chief data officer• Compliance officer• Risk management officer
Social media marketing		Use social media platforms to promote products or services	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Digital marketing specialist• Marketing manager• Social media marketing specialist
Continuous integration		Integrate codes into a database to detect problems continuously	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• DevOps engineer• Full-stack engineer• Software engineer
Workflow automation		Automate manual processes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Consultant• Project manager• Software engineer
Gesture recognition technology		Interpret human gestures using a computing device	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mobile engineer• Researcher• Software engineer
Blockchain		Manage a distributed and decentralised public ledger	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Blockchain developer• Chief technology officer• Consultant
Artificial intelligence		Design intelligent agents to perform human-like tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Business analyst• Data scientist• Software engineer
Robotic process automation		Automate high-volume, repeatable business processes using software	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Business analyst• Consultant• Robotics engineer
Human-centred design		Develop solutions focusing on the human perspective in all steps of the process	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Graphics designer• Product designer• User experience designer
Front-end Web development		Convert data to a graphical interface to build websites or Web apps	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Frontend developer• Full-stack engineer• Web developer