

Two mega-ships cruising from Singapore

	Quantum of the Seas	World Dream
Cabin costs and category*	$984 for Interior Cabin	$1,164 for Balcony Cabin
Dining outlets and bars	22 (Seven inclusive restaurants; bars are chargeable)	35 (Three inclusive restaurants; bars are chargeable)
Activities	39	20
Bring your own alcohol 	Two bottles with $7.99 corkage	Not permitted
Extra passengers 	Children below age 12 sail for free	Third and fourth passengers travel free
Maximum number of passengers	2,000	1,700
Average number of crew members	1,300	1,100

NOTE:

*Based on lowest cabin category available for a three-night Cruise To Nowhere for sailing in late January next year, at the point of writing. Total costs per cabin based on twin share, inclusive of all fees, taxes and gratuities and Covid-19 tests. Prices are dynamic.

Quantum of the Seas provides a carry on-board allowance of two bottles of wine/champagne a cabin. On board both ships, passengers may purchase alcoholic beverages separately.

For bookings with children or extra adults, Quantum of the Seas automatically pushes the cabin class from Interior to the larger and more expensive Balcony cabin. For both ships, all additional passengers (including children) are subject to taxes, fees and gratuities.

Sources: JOHN TAN, WEBSITES AND CALL CENTRES OF QUANTUM OF THE SEAS AND WORLD DREAM
STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS