

Changes in and around SGH Campus

The Health Sciences Authority will be moving from its Outram Road building to a vacant site in Jalan Bukit Merah, as part of a series of changes in the area. Under construction currently are new buildings for the National Cancer Centre Singapore, as well as two buildings for the Singapore General Hospital – an Elective Care Centre and an Emergency Medicine Building.

